The third annual meeting of the Royal Aranum Bowline League of Brooklyn was held on Saturday night at the Elephant (Sub house Of the twenty-nine councils in the league twenty-six were represented, as follows: Long Island, De Witt Clinton, Philadelphos, Fulton, Commonwealth, Gilbert, Nassau, Brook-lyn, Bedford, De Long, Fern, Washington Irving, Fort Greene, Vigliantis, Pro Patria, De Forest, Alert, Burnside, Oxford, Welcome, Undine, Falm, and Bushwick. Thomas E. Quinn presided, and Edward Pye acted as secretary. The proceedings were highly in-teresting, and lasted nearly four hours. The effort to divide the league into two sec tions failed, and by a nearly unanimous vote it was decided to have a continuous tourney in one section. The first championship games will be piaved on cept. 28, and the bowling will be pixyed on sept. 28, and the bowling nights will be Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday until March 15, after which Tuesday and Thursday nights will be added until the tourney is finished. The selection of umpires was left to the Board of Managers. The resignatism of Thomas Curtis as manager was accepted with regret.

The resignatism of Thomas Curtis as manager was accepted, provides for prizes for the members of the first four teans, six high-average prizes, three prizes for the least number of missed suares, three prizes for the speatest number of missed suares, three prizes for the greatest number of clean games. No one will be entitled to more than one prize, and bowlers must play in twenty-three games to be eligible. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, Dr. W. A. Grimth, Gibert Council; Vice-Frestdent, Jr. R. Watte, Be Long Council; Vice-Frestdent, J. R. Watte, Be Long Council; Vice-Frestdent, J. R. Diebl, For Greene Council; Delegates to American Bowling Counces—James I. Martin, Philadelphos Council, and Dr. W. A. Grimth.

Charles H. Ebbets, Secretary of the Brook-and Dr. W. A. Griffith.

Charles H. Ebbets, Secretary of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, although not identified with the league, was unanimously selected to arrange the schedule. The Hoard of Managers was empowered to purchase the prizes. The efficient services of Secretary Pye were remembered in a substantial manner by doubling the amount of his salary. There is every indication that this year's tourney will eclipse last season's in general interest.

CRANE MAY DIE FROM A BEATING.

He Was Badly Injured by Edward Stowell

William Crane, who was 20 years old yesterday, and who was to have become the superin-tendent of a Sunday school at Bensonhurst, was badly beaten by Edward Stowell Friday night at Bath Beach in a row over a game of cards, and it is thought that he will die. Crane was taken to his father's house at Eightyonhurst, suffering from cerebral hemorrhage and a fractured skull. Stowell was held without bail and locked up n Raymond street Jail. He is the proprietor of he Benson, the hotel in which the row occurred, and the police say that he has severely beaten wo other men in his house since he reopened it about a year ago. He kept the place first a few, years ago, but gave it up to travel with a variety ompany. He is a professional acrobat and a nan of great strength.

It is said that on Sunday last the rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Bensonhurst anonneed that young Crane's birthday would be uperintendent of the Sunday school, in reward for his activity in the work of the church. He has sung in the choir for some time, and his brother, and sisters are also prominent in the church's affairs. Crane was regarded as an in-dustrious, quiet young man. He was employed

Last Friday night he went with his sister to the choir rehearsal, which he conducted. He walk of the choir rehearsal, which he conducted. He walk of the choir rehearsal, which he conducted. He walk of the conducted with her to within a short distance of their home, and then telling her that he would be home in a few minutes, he went to the Benson. Forrest Seabury, a professional diver, and two other men living in Bath Heach were there. They began playing poker, and, after a time, they began playing poker, and, after a time, they are was interrupted by a dispute between Crane and Seabury.

The cause of the disagreement was that Crane thought he was entitled to the stakes which Seabury tried to take from the table. Crane tried to prevent him, and the dispute which assued attracted Stowell's attention. The men were both endeavoring to get possession of the money and were talking loudly when Stowell entered the room.

He saized Crane by the neck and forcing him down struck his face against the floor with such violenge that one tooth was knocked out of his mouth, his lips were spill; and his chin laid open. According to the witnesses, Crane begged to be allowed to leave the place, but Stowell grabbing him by the shoulders, continued to beat his head against the floor until his skul was broken in and his scalp mashed and lacerated. Seabury was not attacked, and the other two men who were playing in the game. Frederick Haviland and Frank Henley were not molested. When he had finished with Crane, Stowell pushed him out of the house. Crane was able to walk to his home, nearly a mile away, where he told his older brother what had happeaned. The two started back to Stowell's, the older brother not realizing the extent of Grane's injuries. On the way the by fainted, and he was sent home in a carriage.

On Saturday he became delirious, and while his sieter, who
